Inadequate transport facilities from airports to city centres

5941. SHRI YERRA NARAYANASWAMY: Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) which body or authority of Covernment is responsible for maintenance of airports for internal air traffic;

(b) the details of this body;

(c) whether it is a fact that very poor organisation of public transport and taxis exist at major airports in the country;

(d) whether it is a fact that passengers alighting at Delhi find it difficult to get easy transport to the city;

(e) whether there is no monitoring done of such facilities by the Civil Aviation authorities; and

(f) the steps proposed to improve such facilities for passengers?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) and (b) Airports Authority of India (AAI) manages 5 international, 87 domestic airports and 28 civil enclaves in the country.

(c) and (d) No, Sir.

(e) and (f) Regular monitoring of these facilities is done by the Airport-in-Charges on round the clock basis besides surprise inspection by senior airport officials and Officers from head quarters.

Monitoring of various airport services and complaints, if any received from public, are reviewed and discussed in the Airport Coordination Committee meetings at respective international airports.

Keeping in view the growth in traffic, AAI has planned for additional bus services from Airports to City centres and major Hotels.

Increase in International traffic from Delhi

5942. SHRI KRISHAN LAL SHARMA: Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the International traffic from Delhi is increasing at a fast speed;

(b) whether it is also a fact that Delhi airport needs extension of runways, expansion of air cargo complex, capacity to handle 20 million passengers and ever expanding cargo;

(c) whether Government have drawn up any plan to meet these urgent requirements; and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM (SHRI GHULAM NABI AZAD): (a) While the international cargo traffic at Indira Gandhi International Airport has increased at a faster rate, it is not so in case of international passenger traffic.

(b) to (d) While the runways and both the international and domestic terminals are sufficient to cater to the present traffic demand, Airports Authority of India has plans to expand and modernise air cargo complex.

Theft at ITD duty free shops at Goa Airport

5943. SHRI JOHN F. FERNANDES: Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION AND TOURISM be pleased to state:
